MEETING ROOM USAGE POLICY

Policy Statement

The New Canaan Library, Inc. (the "Library") makes its Meeting Rooms, when not required for Library use, available to the public as a community service. In keeping with the Library's Mission to be the informational and cultural center of the community, providing meeting space to outside groups is intended to complement the Library's educational and cultural programs while developing cooperative relationships with community organizations.

Users of the Library's Meeting Rooms shall be governed by the terms and conditions of this Policy, the Application to Reserve a Meeting Room (the "Application") and the Library Use and Code of Conduct Policy (collectively referred to as the "MR Usage Agreement"). Meeting room requests that vary from the MR Usage Agreement will be considered at the discretion of the Library's Executive Director or the Public Services Manager.

Available Meeting Rooms (each, a "Meeting Room")

- Adrian Lamb Room ("Lamb Room") (seats a maximum of 200 people audience style or approx. 100 people at tables)
- Plaut Conference Room ("Plaut Room") (seats a maximum of 18 people at table; up to 10 more people if seated around perimeter)
- H. Pelham Curtis Gallery ("Curtis Gallery") - non-private space (seats a maximum of 60 people audience style; 10 more people possible)
- Children's Program Room ("Children's PR") (seats a maximum of 30 people audience style or approx. 15 people at tables)

Reservation Procedure

- A. Meeting Rooms may be reserved by the following categories of organizations (each, a "Group"):
- A nonprofit organization with an IRC §501(c)(3) determination letter (a "§501(c)(3) Organization");

- Town of New Canaan Departments and affiliated entities (including the New Canaan Public Schools and the Board of Education) ("TONC Entities");
- A social club, condominium association, civic or community group or similar association that is organized not-for-profit, but does not have an exemption from Federal income taxation under IRC §501(c)(3) (a "Nonprofit Organization"); and
- A for-profit entity or organization or an individual not acting on behalf of an entity (a "For Profit Organization").

To reserve a Meeting Room, a Group must complete and execute the Application that may be found online under "Reserve a Room" on the Library's website. Assistance with, or questions on, the Application and this Policy may be directed to the Library's Information Desk (203-594-5003). The Library reserves the right to seek additional information and references for, and obtain such other documentation (e.g., charitable status, tax exemption evidence, insurance certificates, evidence of permits) from, any Group seeking to reserve a Meeting Room.

- B. Library use of a Meeting Room receives priority in scheduling. At other times Applications will be processed on a first-come, first-served basis. Event activities shall be restricted to those facilities for which the Application has been specifically made.
- C. The Executive Director has the discretion to deny use of a Meeting Room to any Group.
- D. A Meeting Room reservation may not be assigned to another Group.

D. Payment of Use Charges

1. A Group shall pay the Library the Rental Rate for the time booked and estimated Custodial Charge, where applicable, at least 10 days prior to the Meeting Room reservation date if appropriate based on the booking date, or if later, at the time of booking the Meeting Room. By advance arrangement with the Library, payment may be made in full at the time of the event.
2. If the cost of clean-up exceeds the estimated Custodial Charge, the Group is responsible for the prompt payment of the additional amount upon receipt of the Library's invoice for such excess charge.

E. Cancellation

1. The Library may cancel the MR Use Agreement at any time prior to the event booked by a Group. The Library will endeavor to give a Group at least five (5) days' prior notice of such a cancellation, but under extraordinary circumstances (e.g., severe weather conditions), shorter notice may be necessary. In the event of any such cancellation, the Library will refund the fees and Custodial Charge for the booking in full within 10 days of such notice of cancellation.
2. At least 48 hours prior notice is requested for the cancellation by a Group of a Meeting Room reservation. Meeting Rooms will be held for 15 minutes after the reservation time begins and may be forfeited after that time. Any prepaid rental fees and Custodial Charge will be reimbursed in full within 10 days of receipt of such notice of cancellation. A Group that fails to show for a reserved Meeting Room and provides no advance notice of cancellation will not be entitled to a refund of any prepaid rental fees or Custodial Charge. If a Group repeatedly fails to show for a reserved a Meeting Room, the Group will be denied the privilege of reserving a Meeting Room in the future.

Rules for Use of Meeting Rooms

A. Usage

1. Meeting Rooms may only be used for meetings, programs, or events for purposes that comply with the MR Usage Agreement. In addition to such other purposes that may be deemed inconsistent with the MR Usage Agreement, Meeting Rooms may not be used for the following express purposes:
 - religious services;
 - any political campaign on behalf of a candidate for office, except that political forums or panel discussions of general interest relating to a campaign or political topic will be permitted;
 - promotion of violence, hate or discrimination;
 - social occasions, such as birthday parties, anniversaries or the like, which are not sponsored by the Library; or
 - events which might interfere with the functions of the library staff or the peaceful use of the Library's facilities by its users, or which might endanger the Library's buildings, collections or other property.
2. The Library reserves the right to impose limitations on the frequency of use of Meeting Rooms by any one Group. In furtherance of the foregoing, no Group will be entitled to reserve a Meeting Room for more than six (6) times in any twelve-month period without the prior consent of the Library.
3. No admission fees may be charged by any Group using a Meeting Room.
4. Meeting Rooms may not be used for the advertisement, solicitation or sale of products or services or for fundraising purposes.

B. Responsibility

1. An authorized representative of a Group (the "Representative") approved for a Meeting Room will review this Policy and agree on behalf of the Group to abide by its terms and conditions. Agreement to the Terms and Conditions of this Policy on the Library's website shall constitute such Representative's agreement on behalf of the Group.
2. Minors may use a Meeting Room provided the Representative of the Group who must be an adult, reserves the Meeting Room and supervises the event on behalf of the Group.

3. Only Library personnel may set up and remove the seating and any audiovisual equipment requested by a Group in the Application for an event. Operation of the requested audiovisual equipment by the Representative or other member of the Group will be permitted at the discretion of the Library personnel.
4. The Representative, as well as the Group, will be responsible for any loss or damage resulting from the Group's use of the Meeting Room (including any equipment of the Library provided to the Group), and any ancillary facility such as the kitchen; compensation for any loss or damage is expected to be paid promptly upon receipt of the Library's invoice.
5. The Library is not responsible for loss or damage to any equipment, supplies, exhibit materials or other items owned or used by a Group.

C. Publicity

1. Permission granted to a Group to use a Meeting Room does not in any way constitute an endorsement of the Group's policies, beliefs or activities by the Library.
2. All publicity (flyers, posters, newsletters, press releases and invitations) to be used by a Group for a Meeting Room event must contain:
 - an acknowledgment of the Group's sponsorship of the event with contact information for the Group, including the name and contact information for the Representative of the Group; and
 - a disclaimer, prominently featured, to the following effect: THIS PROGRAM IS NOT SPONSORED BY NEW CANAAN LIBRARY.
3. Neither the name of, nor any contact information for, the Library may be used as the address or headquarters for any Group using the Library for meeting purposes.
4. The Library does not promote or publicize through its website or other resources any Meeting Room event that is not Library-sponsored.

D. Care and Use of Facilities

1. Attendance will be limited to the maximum legal capacity of the Meeting Room selected.
2. All exits must be kept unlocked at all times. Open aisles must be maintained within the seating arrangement to provide clear access to exits.
3. Smoking is prohibited in the Library, including in any Meeting Room.
4. If the MR Usage Agreement permits the Group's provision of alcoholic beverages, the Group, prior to the event, shall furnish the Library with evidence of the appropriate State of Connecticut Liquor Permit for the event and a certificate evidencing the Group's liability insurance coverage and where requested, naming the Library as an additional insured. The Group shall also appoint the Representative or another adult member of the Group as the "Designated Person" for the event, who shall remain on the premises throughout the event and who shall be responsible for the Group's compliance with all laws and regulations applicable to the provision of alcohol.

5. Burning of any materials in a Meeting Room, such as incense and candles, is prohibited.
6. Nothing may be affixed or mounted to the walls of a Meeting Room in any way without the prior consent of the Library.
7. The Meeting Room and the kitchen, where applicable, will be left clean and in good order.
